For each PhD school or course, specific details are given in annexes available at <http://www.unica.it/pub/3/index.jsp?is=3&iso=47>: PhD school/course name, Directors and Coordinators, area code, description of research topics (available only in Italian), duration (number of years), the overall number of available places, associated universities, number of scholarships, places reserved for foreign candidates, supernumerary positions, entrance test procedures, contacts.

Scholarships available are 141; 81 funded by P.O.R. Sardegna F.S.E. 2007-2013 (European Social Funds) Obiettivo Competitività Regionale e Occupazione, Asse IV Capitale Umano, Linea di Attività 1.3.1”; 17 funded by the University of Cagliari; 16 funded according to D.M. n. 198/2003; 26 financed by INPS Gestione Ex Inpdap (National Institute for social welfare), in the framework of the project “Doctor J”; 1 financed by the National Institute of Nuclear Physics (INFN); 16 scholarships are reserved for foreign candidates.

Scholarships funded by the program “P.O.R. Sardegna F.S.E. 2007/2013 funding scheme are intended for the training and education of highly specialized HR units, in particular in the following fields of expertise: ICT, nanotechnologies and biotechnologies, sustainable development and energy sources, food research, and traditional materials. These grants are assigned only to those candidates who meet the requirements specified by art. 2 below, based on a ranking list, who are currently residing in Sardinia from five years or whose parents have resided in Sardinia for at least five years or whose parents are Sardinian emigrants.

Scholarships funded by INPS-Gestione Ex Inpdap are reserved to successful selected candidates, children or orphans whose parents are Public Administrations employees or INPS employees or INPS retirees.

Courses listed above will start only if at least three admitted students will enroll.

The number of scholarships may be increased with funding by public or private bodies as long as funding and the sponsoring agreement are completed before the enrolment deadline.

The failure to finalize agreements with public and private bodies within the prescribed times will lead to grants not being assigned and, as a consequence, the reduction in the overall number of places on offer.

In case of additional scholarships, the number of positions available within PhD courses/schools may increase.

Art. 2

Eligibility requirements

Admission to the PhD programs is open, without any restrictions in terms of age and nationality, to candidates in possession of:

- a degree from the Italian university system awarded according to D.M. n. 509/1999 (diploma di laurea specialistica);
- a degree from the Italian university system awarded according to D.M. n. 270/2004 (diploma di laurea magistrale)
- a degree from the Italian university system awarded according to the regulations established before D.M. n. 509/1999 (diploma di laurea);

- a foreign qualification giving them access to doctoral studies in the country in which the degree/diploma was obtained and considered equivalent, for study career and cv, to Italian degrees listed above by the academic authorities, also within specific cooperation and mobility agreements between the University of Cagliari and other Universities, for the only purpose of admission to the admission exam.

Participation in the competitive examinations is also open to students who will obtain their master of science by and not later than the date of the test of the admission exam. In this case, admission shall be granted with reservation and the candidate shall be expected to submit the necessary declaration as soon as he/she obtains the degree and, at all events, by and not later than the date set for the first admission exam. Candidates must send the documents (copy of ID and certificate) to the administrative office by fax (+39 070 6756490) or by email to dottoratiemaster@unica.it.

Failure to meet this requirement before the date of the written test shall result in the candidate being excluded from the admission test procedure.

Art. 3

Admission applications

In order to apply, candidates must first register following the online procedure available at <https://webstudenti.unica.it/esse3/Start.do>.

Instructions for registration are published at <http://www.unica.it/pub/3/index.jsp?is=3&iso=47>.

Registration to the admission procedure must be completed before the deadline of 30 days after the publication of the present announcement in the official journal Gazzetta Ufficiale della Repubblica 4a Serie Speciale Concorsi, <http://www.gazzettaufficiale.it/guridb/dispatcher?service=4&task=elenco60GuFree>.

University provides several Internet access stations available to candidates. The list is published at <http://www.unica.it/pub/4/index.jsp?is=4&iso=288>.

According to art.46 D.P.R. n. 445/2000, candidates must report in the application form:

- a. first name, last name, Italian tax identification number (codice fiscale), place and date of birth, residence, telephone, email and current address where correspondence for selection purpose must be sent.
- b. citizenship.
- c. the exact name of the PhD course/school the application is made for.
- d. academic degree awarded (specifying score obtained, date of award, awarding academic institution).
- e. to own entry requirements reported in the call and to be aware of the text of the call.
- f. to be aware of the penalties for forged attestations as reported in the D.P.R. n. 445/2000, art. 46.
- g. to be aware of the regulations of the Legislative Decree n. 196 /2003 (law of privacy) and thereby accept personal data treatment for the PhD call purpose.

In accordance to art. 20 Law n. 104/92, candidates with disabilities are entitled to extra time and/or assistance with the completion of the competition exam. Personal data will be treated according to the Legislative Decree n 196 /2003.

At the end of the registration procedure, applicants must print the receipt.

Based on the University rules for taxes and tuition fees for the academic year 2012/2013 in order to attend the entrance examination, applicants must pay a fee of € 21,32 according to one of the method reported at <http://www.unica.it/pub/34/show.jsp?id=13832&iso=763&is=34> (Come pagare le tasse universitarie); payments may be completed not before two working days after the online procedure.

Candidates with a foreign academic degree

If the foreign degree has been already recognized equivalent to one of the Italian degree reported in art.2 by another Italian University, the candidate shall report the reference of the University and the number of Rector's decree of declaration of equivalence.

Foreign university degree not validated by an Italian authority yet, will be evaluated by the Committee Board of the PhD program for the sole purposes of the admission to the PhD program the candidate wishes to apply for.

The above documents may be sent in advance by email to dottoratiemaster@unica.it. The hard copies must be sent to the office within noon of the third working day after the deadline reported above. In case such documents are sent through mail, candidates must attach a copy of the post office receipt.

In case of mail delivery, the postmark shall have no validity. Only the date of receipt, not the date of postage, will be considered.

Therefore, applications received after the deadline will be automatically and irretrievably rejected.

If the applicant applies for more than one PhD School/course, each application form must be accompanied by the requested documents as reported in art. 3 and the payment of the application fee of € 21,32 for each application presented.

No written communication of admission to the selection will be sent to applicants.

The University has the right to check the truthfulness of self- declarations/affidavits provided by candidates.

The Administration Office decides upon admission of candidates to the examination. Access to the procedure may be denied where candidates do not meet the criteria for admission stated in the present document.

In accordance with art. 75 and art. 76 of the Decree of the President of the Italian Republic no. 445/2000, if the University administration offices should discover that the information declared by the candidate is mendacious or false, the applicant shall forfeit any benefits obtained by the legislative measure on the basis of false declarations.

The University administration declines all responsibility in the case of loss of documents, caused by inaccurate information regarding the permanent or habitual address of the candidate, by the failure of the candidate to inform the University of a change of address, or due to postal or telegraphic errors which are not attributable to the University Administration's offices.

Art. 4

- interview: up to 30 points;

selection procedure will be passed if candidate gets a score of at least 70/100.

Art. 5

Examination Boards

Board of Examiners are appointed by the Chancellor, behind proposal of PhD Academic Board, for the comparative evaluation of the candidates. It is constituted by three members and two substitutes, chosen among the full-time faculty members and researchers for each PhD in the relevant area of study. Board members can be flanked by up to two experts of clear repute, whether Italian or foreign, from public and private universities and research organizations. The nomination of experts may be compulsory in case of the signature of an agreement with SME (art. 2195 codice civile, art. 17 Law n 317/1991).

Examination Boards appointment decree will be published on <http://www.unica.it/pub/3/index.jsp?is=3&iso=47>.

Art. 6

Rankings

At the end of the evaluation procedure, the selection board will write up the minutes. The list of candidates with the scores assigned to written test, c.v., interview and valuation of titles will be available at the venue where the examinations took place. The Board shall draw up the ranking on the basis of the comparative evaluation of the candidates considering the total scores of each candidate. The ranking list will be published on the web site <http://www.unica.it/pub/3/index.jsp?is=3&iso=47>.

In case of candidates with the same ranking position, younger age will prevail.

No written communication will be sent to selected candidates.

Art. 7

Admission to the courses

Candidates are admitted to the course according to the ranking list and until the completion of the number of places available in the competition. If any of the candidates admitted withdraws before the start of the course or is excluded due to false declarations provided, the next candidate(s) in the ranking shall take their place. If a candidate is admitted contemporarily to several PhD courses, he/she shall choose to attend only one of them.

Enrolment in a research doctorate is incompatible with enrolment in any other course at this or any other University.

The public employee, admitted to a PhD course will be granted, on request and compatibly with the requirements of the administration, extraordinary leave for reasons of study for the duration of the course and will receive a scholarship. In the case of admission without a study grant, or where the candidate renounces the scholarship, the person on leave maintains the usual economic and welfare conditions from the public administration by which they are employed. Public employees who already hold a PhD or who have previously been enrolled in a PhD course for at least one academic year, while on extraordinary leave, do not have the right to benefit from these conditions.

Supernumerary students

Candidates are admitted as supernumerary and without scholarship, only to those PhD Schools/courses with supernumerary positions (Annexes).
